BREAK OF STRUCTURE AND MS

Break Of Structure (BOS)

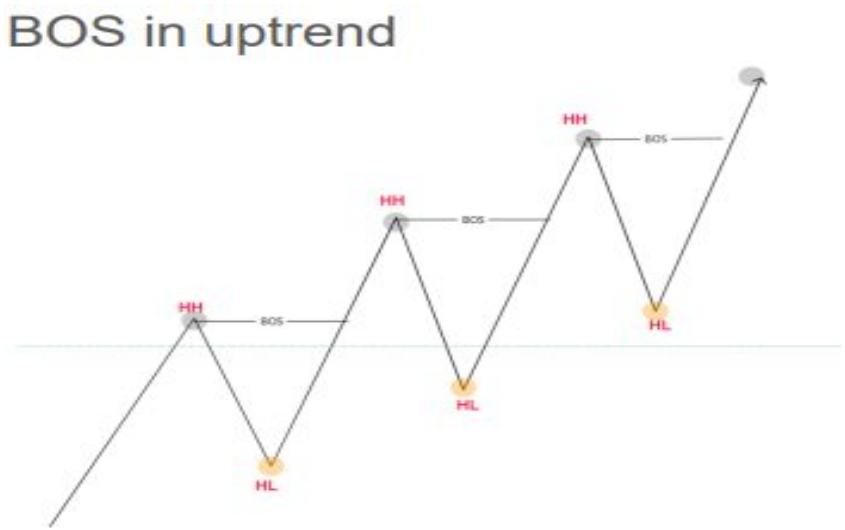

- BOS is short for BREAK OF STRUCTURE and it indicates a continuation of a trend.
- UPTREND: Price is making HHs (expansion) and HLs (correction). This means that in order to continue the bullish trend, price must break through the level of the previous HH. If it does, we call it a "bullish" BOS (Break Of Structure and expect the trend to continue.

MS or CHOCH

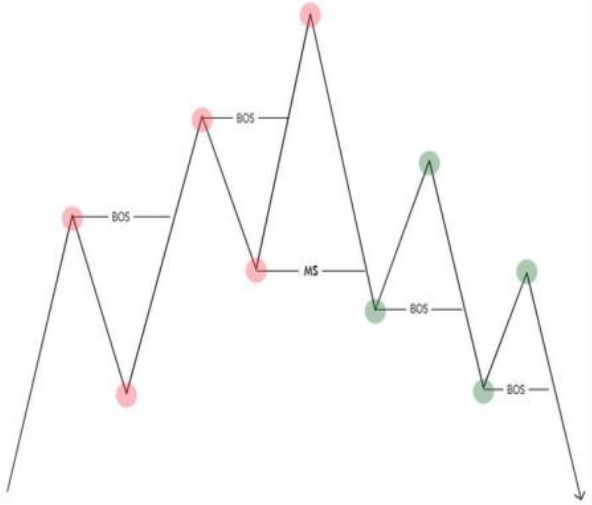

- CHOCH is short for CHANGE OF CHARACTER and it indicates the first sign of a trend reversal.
- UPTREND -> DOWNTREND: Price is in an uptrend (making HHs and HLs) which means that it's breaking previous swing highs ("bullish" BOS) and not moving below previous swing lows

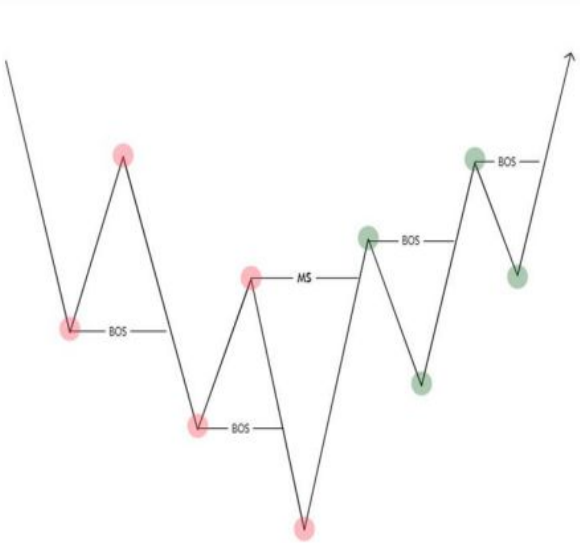

MS or CHOCH

- When price ends up making a low (LL) below the previous swing low (HL), we call this break of structure a CHOCH, which signals a possible trend reversal from bullish to bearish.
- DOWNTREND -> UPTREND: Price is in a downtrend (making LHs and LLs) which means that it's breaking previous swing lows ("bearish" BOS) and not moving above previous swing highs.

MS or CHOCH

- When price ends up making a high (HH) above the previous swing high (LH), we call this break of structure a CHOCH, which signals a possible trend reversal from bearish to bullish.
